Subject: BDCP "Strike" Team

Hi all - I just wanted to let you know that we have some new office mates on the 5th floor. A small multi-agency team has quickly been put together to lead the BDCP consultation effort. The team will be led by Jason Philips, the Deputy Regional Director for the Bureau of Reclamation's Mid-Pacific Region. They are setting up in our office space temporarily to plan their future home. We don't know how long they will be here, whether they will find space for an office within our office, or they will find another place elsewhere. All I can tell you is that we are pleased to help them, as we know it is going to take a strong federal and state agency partnership to complete the BDCP. So far, joining us will be Jason and Michelle Banonis, both from Reclamation. Jason will be in the office next to the San Joaquin Room and Michelle will be in Aimee's old office (file room). I will let you know as more are added. Please introduce yourself and make them feel at home!
